

Future retirement means “flexibility”

I will immediately stop working altogether and enter full retirement

33%

I will change the way I work (e.g. working part time or on temporary contracts) but only for a while before I eventually give up paid work altogether

31%

I will change the way I work (e.g. working part time or on temporary contracts) and I will continue paid work throughout retirement in some capacity

16%

I will keep working as I currently do. Retirement age won't make a difference to the way I work
